PERSONAL UMBRELLA INSURANCE

Helping you protect the life you've built...

One More Way The Hartford Guards Your Peace-of-Mind and What Matters to You Most

You can count on The Hartford to help you keep your life uninterrupted and protect your hopes and dreams by providing valuable insurance protection for your home, your car and your personal property. But, there are times when your coverage needs may extend beyond these policy limits. For example, what would happen if...

- A neighbor was injured in your swimming pool?
- A passerby tripped and broke her leg on your property?
- Your dog's bite proved worse than his bark?
- You were in a car or motorcycle accident and were sued for $1 million?

These are just a few circumstances in which Personal Umbrella coverage could prove a valuable addition to your insurance plan. Today, anyone can be sued. And million dollar judgments, once a rarity, have become all too common. Even if the court decides in your favor, you may still have to pay legal fees and court costs. Why take a chance?

The Hartford keeps your life moving ahead with Personal Umbrella coverage that fits your lifestyle and budget.

Fortunately, you can mount a powerful defense against the financial burden of personal litigation - with The Hartford's Personal Umbrella Plan. Available exclusively to Hartford Personal Auto customers, this coverage provides the expanded liability protection you may need if a serious accident occurs, even if you're traveling outside the country on business or vacation. It's an inexpensive way to add important value to your insurance coverage and protect yourself against potentially catastrophic financial burdens or losses.

The Hartford even extends umbrella coverage for your motorcycles and recreational vehicles, such as snowmobiles, ATVs, golf carts and jet skis, for an additional premium. (See chart on following page for details.)

How An Umbrella Extends Your Coverage

The Hartford's Personal Umbrella Plan takes over where your basic automobile and homeowners policies leave off - providing up to $5 million dollars worth of additional liability coverage.*

How does a personal umbrella work? If there is a covered liability claim under your automobile or homeowners policy and the dollar amount of the judgment is greater than the coverage limits you have purchased on those policies, the umbrella provides additional limits of coverage. In addition, there may be liability exposures which are not covered under your homeowners policy, such as personal injury claims for slander or libel, which are covered by a personal umbrella.

What Primary Coverage You'll Need

This valuable protection is available exclusively to customers who turn to The Hartford for all their personal auto insurance needs. To add this umbrella protection, you'll need to make sure your primary policies provide adequate qualifying coverage. Check the following chart to see what coverages The Hartford requires. If necessary, your primary coverage¹ can be increased at the same time your umbrella application is completed.

This brochure outlines in general terms the coverages that may be afforded under a Hartford personal umbrella policy. All policies must be examined carefully to determine suitability for your needs and to identify any exclusions, limitations or any other terms and conditions that may specifically affect coverage.
